Congratulations to Sharon on becoming a certified BoardSource Governance Trainer! By completing her professional development and certification course she is able to now efficiently deliver BoardSource methodologies and training. The multiple day course provided her with the tools and guidelines she will use to deliver a BoardSource certified curriculum.

"I'm excited by what this opportunity offers. High performing Boards make the difference between good and great organizations. BoardSource continues to lead the way in training and guiding boards to be the best they can. I offer congratulations to my colleagues who were also successful in achieving this recognition. They are a great group of people and I'm proud to be affiliated with all of them - and with BoardSource."- Sharon Danosky

Advice From Peter Roche

Planning For The Inevitable: Peter Roche

No matter how well your organization is run, no matter how vigilant you are, no matter how good you are at what you do- the day will come when you will face a crisis. In truth, the crisis may not be your fault. You may be the victim of some intent of doing something wrong or harmful. OR it may simply be an accident and no one is at fault. The main thing to do is to understand that, whatever the cause or reason, there is a crisis laying in wait out there.

Molly's Musings

I would like to start out by saying thanks to everyone who voted for me to be placed in the Brook Farm Veterinary Center calendar last month. Although the competition was tough and I came up a bit short in votes, your love and support really made my tail wag :)!

Molly, D.O.G.

The last couple of weeks have been very busy! Between conferences and meetings, I barely have any time to relax in the office alongside my co-workers. My mom and the rest of the Danosky team have been working diligently to end the year in high spirits. I have been hearing nothing but the ringing of phones, typing and our office door opening and closing with new and old faces stepping through the threshold. We have all been working extremely hard to get our tasks done, but I know I'm not the only one who is excited for a wonderful turkey dinner! Until next time, have a safe and Happy Thanksgiving everyone!
